

N.Y. DeMolay Gets Exec. Dir.

Daniel L. Clark

The Appointment of a new Executive Director of the New York DeMolay Headquarters Office in Buffalo was recently announced by Robert M. Walker, Executive Officer in New York.

The duties of the appointee, Daniel L. Clark, 22, will be concerned with the affairs of DeMolay only in the state of New York.

A native son of the state, he is presently attending State University of New York to complete a required course for his B.A. degree in Psychology.

He was married in September 1970 to the former Diane J. Harris.

A Senior DeMolay of Bill Brown chapter in Hamburg, N. Y., he held several chapter offices and is an RD, Chev., and holds the PMC-MSA. He also served as Section JC and MC, Deputy Region MC, N. Y. State Adjutant and is presently Secretary of the State Advisory Council.

He was raised a Master Mason in Fraternal Lodge No. 625 in Hamburg last year, and is an active member of the Hamburg Methodist Church.

WAY BACK WHEN

ANSWERS:

TO WAY BACK WHEN, page 10.

1. Walter C. Minnick, of Walla Walla, Wash., chapter in 1960.
2. In St. Louis, Mo., in August, 1922. More than 3000 were in attendance.
3. In 1924. Clayton Watkins of Fargo, N. D., qualified as the first RD.
4. In March 1933, by edict of the Grand Council.
5. On December 17, 1952 at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
6. Burwood chapter, Earlwood, N. S. W., on February 6, 1948.

FRANK S. LAND DAY,

Has your chapter completed plans for observance of this special ceremonial day to pay tribute to the Order's Founder?

If not, suggested activities for observances can be found in the new DeMolay Handbook on page 160.

The long-awaited biography of Dad Land, "Hi, Dad!", written by Rev. Herbert E. Duncan, Grand Chaplain of DeMolay, will be issued on this 11th anniversary of the death of our Founder.